Coherent spiritual-scientific relationships between categories of study, learning, practise, applied mediums and work with biography are mediated by developing the use of interdisciplinary language.

Guidance in relation to anthroposophical literature and study is facilitated according to individual need and the dynamic constitution of the training group.

Particular attention is given to the development and demonstration of skills enabling self-assessment in one's own work and interaction with peers.

biographical archetypes and phenomenology	documentation (3-fold, chart design, discipline); developmental principles (life phases, ego, 'I', Self, thresholds, Guardians, maturation); planetary cycles and metamorphoses (nodes, rhythm, intervals); reflection, synchronicity and resonance (axes, constellation); planetary occultism (evolution, spheres, influences); karma and compulsion, destiny and freedom (prenatal, birth, life, grace, death, afterlife, reincarnation); crisis and opportunity (education, vocation, health, illness, trials, initiation, dying); relationship (bloodline and spiritual family, partners, children); love and healing (esoteric Christianity, sacramental deed, archetypal individualities at Golgotha).
